 - safe
 - fun toys and games
- to help with their developmental needs.

Before you buy... know what toys your library already has;

- only duplicate if you have a high demand for the toy
- evaluate your toys regularly – frequency of use, maintenance needed, age and needs of the library members

The Small Print.. #1

CREDIT ACCOUNT TERMS & CONDITIONS OF SALE TOY LIBRARY FEDERATION OF NZ Trading as TOY EXPRESS

The Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 may give you rights in addition to your rights under these terms of trade.

The terms of trade set out below govern all of the supplies of goods and services from Toy Library Federation of New Zealand ("TLFNZ or Toy Express", "we", "us") to you. They will replace any terms and conditions contained in any document used by you and to have contractual effect, and your acceptance of any goods or services from TLFNZ indicates your acceptance of these terms of trade. These terms of trade are effective from the date you receive them, and replace all earlier terms of trade between you and TLFNZ.

1. Orders

- 1.1 TLFNZ accepts orders from the customer only on the terms set out in this document. Where we deliver an order by installments, each installment will comprise a separate contract.
- 1.2 Orders may be cancelled only if TLFNZ agrees in writing to the cancellation, and the order has not been processed.

2. Delivery and Risk

- 2.1 You are responsible for insurance and risk in the goods from the time they are received by a carrier for delivery to you, or the time they are collected by you or your agent.

The Terms and Conditions are there to help everyone. Libraries need to know what their rights and responsibilities are.

TOY EXPRESS works hard to ensure you are always pleased with the outcome, but it works both ways!

The Small Print.. #2

Supplier Agreements exist between the suppliers and TOY EXPRESS.

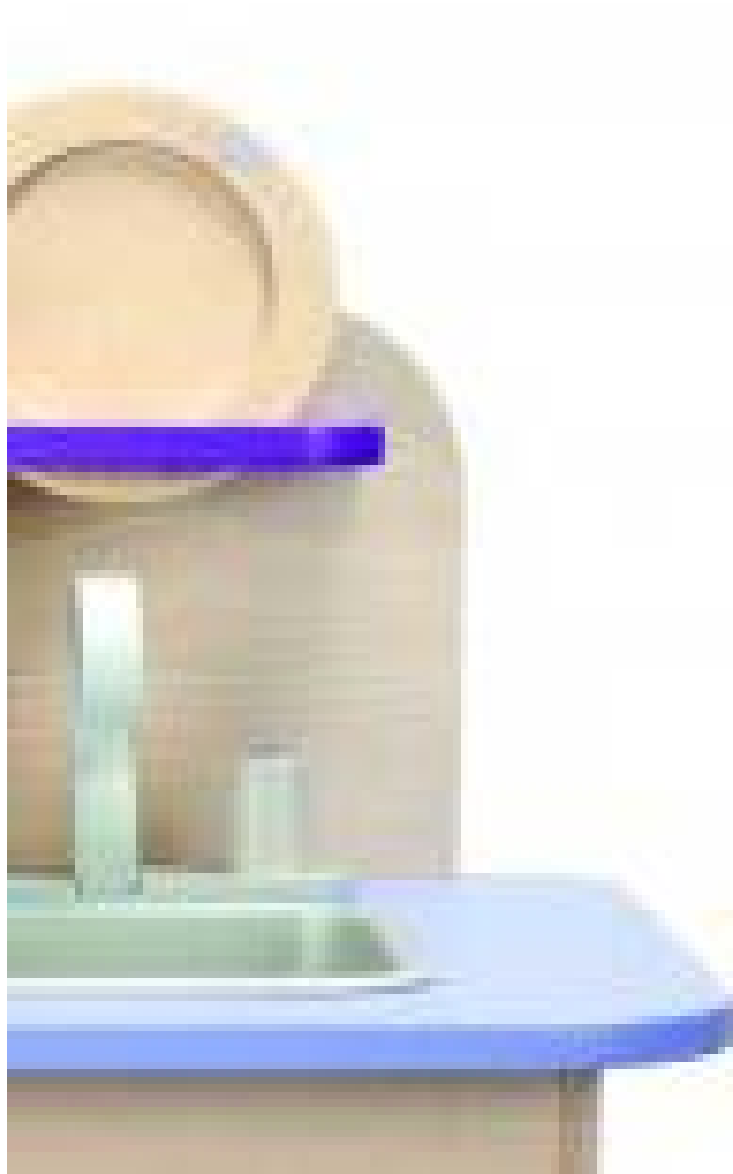

They ensure we get the best prices for ALL libraries.

Please don't embarrass yourself, your library or the supplier by asking for terms outside of these agreements.

It makes it hard for everyone else!
